

VIRTUALIZATION - ASSIGNMENT - 1

Virtual box is a free virtualization program that makes it extremely convenient to set up virtual machines on different operating systems.

Installing Virtualbox on Windows 10.

- open a browser and open the virtual box download page and click the windows host link.
- The latest virtualbox version as of writing is 6.1.36. save the installer somewhere you can quickly locate it. like your downloads folder.
- Locate the virtual box installer file using your File Explorer. Double click the file to launch the virtual box setup wizard.
- click 'Next' on the first screen. This action tells the wizard that you want to install virtual box.
- Do the following actions on the custom setup screen.
 - You'll see a list of the features the wizard will install. In this example, leave the default.

- Browse & select the location you want to install virtualbox in. The default location is fine, but feel free to change it if you prefer

- click Next when you're heading & ready to continue.

- On the next, screen you'll see a list of shortcuts and file associations the installation will create. check or uncheck the items you wish to include or exclude and click Next.

- On the next screen, you'll see a warning about networking. The setup process will install a virtual Network adapter. which may create your network a hic disconnect momentarily. click yes to continue.

- Finally, you'll see a screen asking you to confirm the installation. click install to install virtualbox on windows 10.

- The installation process takes several minutes, depending on your system speed.

- click Finish to close the wizard after the installation & start using virtual box.